Our Company

Lokels LLC. For Locals, by locals - the mission is creating what you need and how you need it. It's built together.

About Us...

Our Story

It all began in 2017 with a podcast. The Lokel Show wanted to share community stories, a platform that would inspire the next generation of creatives and business owners. We told the often overlooked but invaluable stories of local creatives & small businesses—their ambitions and lessons, the stories of how they pursued their dreams.

As relationships formed and our team grew, we became a creative collective and birthed some epic collaborations. We hosted marketplaces, galleries, and events to spotlight local businesses, artists, and musicians. And, it was then that we understood that connections could form through immersive creative experiences. This led us to open our first brick & mortar in 2020, a space to continue creating immersive experiences to uplift and empower our local community.

Our Vision

Lokels LLC is a love letter to whatever city it's in. It is a curated vision of food, art, music, and culture and it's meant to connect the consumer with the passionate business owners and creatives of the dynamic city in which they live.
